About The Speaker

John Groth

It's hard not to notice John Groth. He possesses a rare concern and compassion for men and the challenges they face. His many years in ministry give him not only the ability to teach and lead well, but to understand the real struggles that men face in their lives. His warm and engaging manner, along with an ever present sense of humor and excitement about life, make him highly effective in reaching, challenging and encouraging men.

John is a decorated Air Force Chaplain (Lt Col) currently serving on active duty at Dover AFB in support of Operations, a respected former pastor and graduate of Princeton Theological Seminary and Ursinus College.

John draws from his experiences as an Eagle Scout, volunteer fireman, husband, father, pastor, military chaplain and school teacher. He has taken trips into combat zones and has a sobering ministry at the Dover Air Force Base Department of Defense Mortuary. These experiences enable him to reach men! This ministry powerfully transforms them, their friendships, their marriages, their families and their churches.

John is convinced that the local church must play the pivotal role in men's ministry, so he effectively helps churches establish meaningful, sustainable men's ministries that grow the entire church!
