Colossians & Philemon: Continue to Live in Him

By Kathleen Buswell Nielson

Therefore as you received Christ Jesus the Lord, so walk in Him, rooted and built up in Him and established in the faith, just as you were taught, abounding in thanksgiving. Col. 2:6-7

Without the coach, the team flounders; unplugged, the appliance has no power; without the head, the body dies. Whether for leadership, power or life, connections are vital! Colossians is a book of connections.

Writing from prison, the Apostle Paul teaches about the necessity of a connection with Christ through faith for salvation; and the necessity of continued connection with Him in order to have the power to live. Paul also emphasizes the importance of believers' connections with each other as Christ's body here on Earth.

"With rich insight and wisdom, Kathleen Nielson invites her students to grapple with the text as she provides helpful contexts and comments interspersed throughout stimulating study questions. Kathleen's studies are good food for the soul-challenging, convicting and very, very encouraging"

We begin September 16 in the Fireplace Room (B-01). Join us then, or any time during the semester and bring a friend. Registration Cost: $15
