Core Values

- Provide an environment in which a young child can have a positive early educational experience away from home.
- Provide a well-qualified, loving staff.
- Foster children's spiritual, emotional and intellectual growth.
- Expose families to the love of Christ.
- Protect children and staff in an uncompromising safe environment.
- Prepare children for Kindergarten by exposing them to a relevant educational experience and a wide array of teaching methods.

Vision Statement

To partner with families to provide a solid spiritual, emotional, intellectual, and social foundation for children in a loving, nurturing, and educational environment.
